Exploring Gender Identity Through Art: genesis

Technical infopack:
Second stage

SECOND STAGE OF AN INTERNATIONAL TRAINING COURSE
PROMOTING GENDER IDENTITY THROUGH ART

About the project

What is the project about?

: An innovative journey that combines art and therapy to explore gender identity in a safe and creative space. Participants will be guided to develop an individual or collective art project, which will reflect their questions, experience and message towards gender norms and gender stereotypes

Why art?

: Art helps express what words sometimes cannot, fostering self-reflection and emotional well-being.

Who is the project for?

: Anyone interested in exploring their personal relationship to gender through an artistic and inclusive experience.

What to expect?

: Guided workshops, the development of a personal creative project, open sharing, and a unique and creative journey of self-discovery.

Arte, Fatima, Georg, Marie, and Myrto met during the Erasmus+ project Human Rights Values, where they bonded over their shared commitment to social justice. Motivated by their experiences, they decided to create a project called Gender Identity Through Art, focused on addressing gender inequalities and exploring the complexities of gender identity. With the support of Genesis NGO, they began designing an initiative that uses art as a medium to challenge stereotypes, raise awareness, and create a safe space for dialogue around gender issues.

About the team

Infopack: g

Artemisia is a history and literature teacher with a background in social and migration work. She has lived in different countries and is deeply passionate about creativity and gender studies. She loves to write both articles and short stories.

Fatima (Faty ZO) specialized in International Management and Logistics with a passion for social work, fueled by experiences in multiple Erasmus+ projects. She oversees logistics in this project, ensuring smooth coordination and timely materials delivery. Committed to social impact, attends to support the team in achieving its goals artistically!

Georg is a fan of sports and self-expression. With a number of Erasmus+ projects behind his back, he wants to keep learning and sharing his experience with the others.

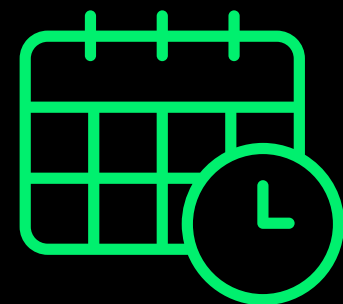

Marie is an educator and facilitator, believing in power of non-formal education. Passionate to improve the educational system, interested in psychology, conflict management and arts, particularly singing. Former ESC volunteer, having lived in several different countries can share her experience of immigration and integration.

Myrto is a passionate fine arts student dedicated to both creating and sharing art. With experience teaching diverse groups, including adults, children, and individuals with disabilities, she fosters creativity and self-expression in every setting. Through her volunteering, Myrto has contributed to making art accessible to all, believing in its transformative power for everyone.
